

Annual Report 2008-2009

Contents

Foreword

- Foreword by the President of the National Council
- Foreword by the Secretary General

The life story of Doris Lurie: Her passport was going to expire in two days ...

Profile

- General information
- The National Fund of the Republic of Austria for Victims of National Socialism
- The General Settlement Fund for Victims of National Socialism
- Communication and transparency

A Journey through Time

- 1995-2009

The Year of Remembrance 2008

- Commemoration and remembrance as a means of coming to terms with history (Renate S. Meissner)
- The departure from the victim theory (Heidemarie Uhl)
- The Austrian presidency of the ITF (Ferdinand Trauttmansdorff)

The life story of Rudolfine Kolmer: How a ten-year-old experienced the 13th March 1938

The National Fund

- General information/Tasks/Decision-making practice/2008 and 2009/Outlook
- The project sponsorship of the National Fund (Evelina Merhaut)

The life story of Katja Sturm-Schnabl: From the recollections of a child about the National Socialist era

The General Settlement Fund

- General information/Proceedings/2008 and 2009/Outlook/Statistics
- The Claims Committee of the General Settlement Fund. An interim review (Sir Franklin Berman)

The life story of Andreas H.: Born in the Lackenbach camp

- The National Fund and the General Settlement Fund: A view from London (John Barker)

In Rem Restitution

- General information/Historical background/Proceedings/2008 and 2009/Outlook
- The Arbitration Panel for In Rem Restitution. An interim review (Josef Aicher)

The life story of Ingeborg Dürnecker: Hidden scars – my suffering in Spiegelgrund

Postscript

- Postscript (Stuart E. Eizenstat)

Appendix

- Documentation of the round table discussion "Restitution as an Interdisciplinary Challenge?"
- Organs/Organogram/Statistics
- Overview of in rem restitution resources
- Specialized literature by the staff
- Final notes
- Legal disclosure

National Fund and General Settlement Fund (Ed.), Vienna 2010, 98 pages.

Download PDF

German Version