Mein israelischer Freund

Project

Description

The film accompanies the Innsbruck teenager Enzo (13) on a trip to Israel, where he will meet the contemporary witness Abraham Gafni. In Israel he gets to know Abraham Gafni, a 90-year-old Jew from Tyrol, and the true meaning of life. On this journey Enzo will learn in a conversation with Abraham Gafni how he had to flee from the Nazis in 1938 as a ten-year-old boy from Innsbruck to Palestine. How escape and reconstruction in a foreign country influenced Abraham.
