

May 2006

Press release on the Art Database of the National Fund for Victims of National Socialism

23 May 2006

From fall this year the National Fund of the Republic of Austria will be providing an online art database as an additional forum for identifying restitutionable art objects. The National Fund is currently cooperating with federal museums and museums of the City of Vienna to take further preparatory ...