

Image not found or type unknown

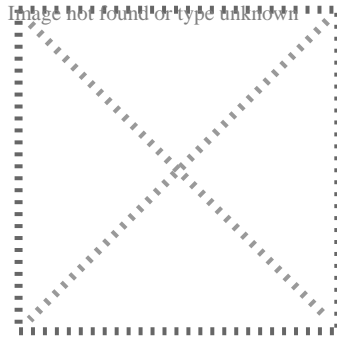

In memoriam Friedrich Zawrel (1929–2015)

20 Apr 2015

Friedrich Zawrel's was laid to rest in an honorary grave of the City of Vienna on 20 April 2015. To mark this sad occasion, the National Fund is publishing the story of his turbulent life. It is a story which is typical for many who, as children, were detained, abused or subjected to medical experiments in the institution "Am Spiegelgrund".

Friedrich Zawrel passed away on 20 February 2015. The course of his life was closely intertwined with the history of Austria. Having been persecuted by the Nazi regime on grounds of "asociality", his persecution did not end with the war in 1945. It was not until 1998 that people such as Friedrich Zawrel and Rudolf Karger who, as children, were detained, abused or subjected to medical experiments in the institution "Am Spiegelgrund", were officially acknowledged as victims of National Socialism.

- life story of Friedrich Zawrel \(in German\)
- life story of Rudolf Karger \(in English\)

Further Links

- Video-Interview with Friedrich Zawrel on the Website of the Steinhof memorial
- Video with Rudolf Karger: "Ich war ein Spiegelgrundkind", W24 "Streifzüge", 07.11.2013
- Funeral speech of Werner Vogt for Friedrich Zawrel: "Wer die Täter enttarnt", diepresse.com 17.4.2015
- "My dear Republic", Website of the film by Elisabeth Scharang with Friedrich Zawrel and Florian Klenk