

Statistics: Payments by the National Fund

Gesture payments

The gesture payment, intended to express acknowledgement of the injustices suffered by people under National Socialism, is the central undertaking of the National Fund. Since 1995 gesture payments have been made totaling around 158.81 million Euros (as at February 2024).

Statistics on gesture payments, as at February 2023

Applications received*	33,059
Payments	31,043

* A change in the way applications are counted this figure differs from the previously published figures. At the applications received are now also those concerning the "Döllersheimer Ländchen".

Compensation for seized tenancy rights pursuant to Sec. 2b of the National Fund Law

Compensation for the Nazi-related seizure of tenancy rights, household effects and personal valuables was paid from 2001. The compensation took the form of a lump sum payment of 7,630 Euros or 7,000 US Dollars per person and an additional payment of 1,000 Euros per person. In total, the National Fund has disbursed around 175 million Euros as compensation for seized tenancy rights.

Statistics on compensation for seized tenancy rights, as at November 2022

Applications received	23,289
Payments	20,351
Additional payments	19,616

Hardship Compensation Fund

Between 2000 and November 2021, 100 payments of 5,087.10 Euros, in total around 508,709 Euros were made from the Hardship Compensation Fund.

The means of the Hardship Compensation Fund are exhausted.

Looted Gold Fund

Between 1999 and 2010, 48 payments of 5,087.10 Euros, in total around 244,200 Euros were made from the Looted Gold Fund.

The means of the looted gold fund are exhausted.

Proceeds from the disposition of art

Since 2012, 41 payments, in total 198,000 Euros (as at February 2024) have been made from the proceeds from the disposition of art.